The Summer Residence of the Emperor of Austria is situated on the banks of the Wien about an hour's walk from Vienna. It was originally erected in 1619, but has been rebuilt on several occasions and contains 1441 rooms. The surrounding park is very beautiful being embellished with many fine groups of statuary, the best known of which are the Neptune Vase and the Gloriette. There is also a pillared hall 312 feet long, and 60 feet high, situated on an eminence commanding a magnificent view of the surrounding country.
